CHAMPAGNE

Moët Chandon Brut

R1 600

The nose combines smoky, slightly reductive aromas (like a freshly struck match), along with citrus and some ripe fruit and honey. In the mouth, the Brut is fresh and bright, with apple, lemon and chalk flavours, but also, at its core, some honey and bread. A persistent, refreshing and precise Champagne.

Moët Chandon Rosé

R2 030

On the palate, the champagne shows a juicy intensity of berries (strawberry, raspberry, red currant) rounded out by the fleshiness and firmness of peach and the freshness of a subtle note of mint.

Moët Chandon Nectar Imperial

Bold yellow with golden highlights. On the palate: The captivating density of exotic fruits (pineapple, mango). The silky firmness of stone fruits (mirabelle plum, apricot). The brisk freshness of grapefruit notes.

Veuve Clicquot Brut

R1 900

The nose shows some aged aromas of buttered baguette and honey, and in the mouth, the Champagne is quite opulent, with ripe red berry and yellow stone fruits, along with some bready characters. However, the fizz finishes with a clean, bright, crisp apple-like bite, making this a full, but balanced style of Brut.

Veuve Clicquot Rosé

R2 350

The nose is generous and elegant, with initial aromas of fresh red fruit (raspberry, wild strawberry, cherry, blackberry) leading to biscuity notes of dried fruits and Viennese pastries (almonds, apricots and broiche). The fresh attack is followed by a fruity harmonious sensation on the palate.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Springfield Life From Stone

R450

Life from Stone derives its name from the incredibly rocky soils in which it is grown. Every year the vineyard battles against nature in order to produce highly concentrated, powerful wines with a flinty, mineral character true to the quartz rock in which it is grown. Monumental human effort was required to plant the vines – implements destroyed, and, in the case of the older vineyards, dynamite deployed. A true expression of the site's terroir.

Klein Constantia KC
